Motion by Councilor Cable, seconded by Councilor Wolfe, to enter into executive session to discuss personnel matters as related to a dismissal as well as possible litigation related to the same matter, with Village Solicitor Brad Nicodemus, Mayor Peterson, and Police Chief Harget invited to the session.

Discussion: Councilor Lemmon stated that Mayor Peterson had offered council an alternative to going into executive session to break up into three groups. Councilor Lemmon stated that he had received advice because he thought it would not be proper. The legal advice he received was that if they were to break up into three groups, it could be considered a round robin situation and that he should not do it. It was not meant to be disrespectful to the Mayor but that was the legal advice he received so he decided to follow it. Mayor Peterson stated that was fine.
